

minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. PITTS. Mr. Speaker, in order to be a leader, one has to have credibility. If you do not have a record of accomplishment on an issue, people simply will not listen.

It is worth pointing out that for almost four consecutive decades, Congress was run by our Democratic friends, and never, not once, did they ever balance the Federal budget. Never once did they pay back a dime on the public debt.

Mr. Speaker, I am not pointing this out to be partisan. I am pointing it out because now it is those same Democrats who are claiming President Bush's tax relief package will keep us from paying down the debt.

Look at the Republican record: Almost immediately after taking control of Congress, Republicans started balancing the budget, paying down our public debt. Four years in a row, we balanced the budget. Four years in a row, we paid down on the public debt.

We already paid near half a trillion dollars. We are paying down the public debt; and in 10 years, we will have paid off every dime available to be paid.

If we stick with the President's plan, there will be enough for tax relief, Social Security, education and paying off our public debt.

BERETS SHOULD ONLY BE MADE IN AMERICA AND WORN BY THE ELITE ARMY RANGER FORCE

(Mr. TRAFICANT asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. TRAFICANT. First, the Air Force bought Chinese boots. Now, the Pentagon is buying berets made in China. The Pentagon said China is cheaper. Unbelievable. What is next? At 17 cents an hour, will the Pentagon hire Chinese soldiers?

Unbelievable. Think about it. The beret once signified our elite ranger force. Now it is about to become a product of communism.

Beam me up. What has happened to the common sense of America? I say it is time to tell the Pentagon we can hire generals and admirals a lot cheaper from China, too.

Mr. Speaker, I yield back the fact that the berets should only be made in America and should only be worn by the elite Army ranger force.

BAD DECISION-MAKING REGARDING BLACK BERETS

(Mr. DUNCAN asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. DUNCAN. Mr. Speaker, the decision to give black berets to all Army troops rather than just to rangers who earned them was a bad decision.

Far worse was the decision to order these berets from a Chinese firm rather than an American firm which could have done them for far less costs.

This was apparently done so the berets could be delivered by the Army's birthday in June.

It would really have made no difference at all to have them given out on some later historic day and have saved millions for our taxpayers.

This decision shows once again that bureaucrats can rationalize and justify almost anything and will almost never admit a mistake.

Mr. Speaker, I say bureaucrat because, by this decision, General Shinseki has acted more like an arrogant bureaucrat than a soldier. Also, by giving this work to Chinese rather than American workers, especially in a slow economy and especially when Americans could have done it at millions less in cost, was both unwise and harmful to this Nation and its workers.

We seem at times, Mr. Speaker, to be giving our own country away.

PRESIDENT'S TAX CUT IS PARTISAN ISSUE

(Mr. BROWN of Ohio asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. BROWN of Ohio. Mr. Speaker, last week, the House voted for the President's signature proposal, a cut in income taxes heavily tilted towards millionaires and billionaires.

Republican National Committee Chairman Jim Gilmore highlighted my no vote as evidence, he says, that I do not want to see lower taxes for my constituents.

My district in Northeast Ohio is not heavily tilted towards the millionaires and billionaires whom President Bush and the Republican Party Chair Gilmore want to help. Most of the people I represent are middle-income people or lower-income working families working their way up.

The right kind of tax cut would mean something to them. Unfortunately, that is not what the President delivered.

Medicare means something to the people in my district. The President's plan uses an accounting trick to siphon funds for the Medicare trust fund. Medicare cannot afford that. The elderly people in my district cannot afford that.

Mr. Speaker, tax cuts are not a partisan issue, but this tax cut is. If the President would work with us on a tax cut that would benefit all Americans, we could easily pass one in this body, but I could not support a bill which gives tax cuts to the wealthiest people, robs Medicare and fails to pay down the national debt.

SUNDRY MESSAGES FROM THE PRESIDENT

Sundry messages in writing from the President of the United States were communicated to the House by Ms. Wanda Evans, one of his secretaries.

STABILIZATION AND PACIFICATION OF SOUTHERN SERBIA ACT

(Mr. BEREUTER asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. BEREUTER. Mr. Speaker, this Member today is introducing legislation entitled the Stabilization and Pacification of Southern Serbia Act. This bill is a response to the ongoing violence in southern Serbia and in Macedonia that has been fomented by Albanian extremists seeking to create a greater Kosovo by annexing areas of Macedonia and southern Serbia that also contain large concentrations of Albanians.

This legislation would terminate U.S. economic assistance for Kosovo on June 30, 2001, unless the President certifies that citizens or residents of Kosovo are no longer providing assistance to the extremists that are responsible for the worsening situation in both southern Serbia and Macedonia and that leaders of the three main ethnic Albanian political parties of Kosovo are taking positive measures to halt the ethnically motivated violence against non-Albanians residing in Kosovo.

It does contain a waiver for the President to continue U.S. assistance if he deems it in the national interests.

Mr. Speaker, I urge support of the legislation.
